Australia's first Social Enterprise Hotel & Restaurant in Mt Vic

In 2015, Hotel Etico in Italy demonstrated that you could successfully run a Hotel staffed mainly by people with an intellectual disability ... and be sustainable! The model has been scaling globally and now Hotel Etico Blue Mountains has become Australia's first social enterprise hotel. Five weeks ago it also opened Niccolo's Italian Restaurant and Bar.

Hotel Etico's purpose is to provide work and training to help people with intellectual disabilities transition to open employment and more independence. It also provides a fantastic holiday experience and mouthwatering Italian food by Chef Adam Taranto in the historic Mount Victoria Manor. We couldn't recommend it highly enough!
